Fire High Performance is a program at the top of our Hitting Hot competitive pathway. It offers a comprehensive approach to tennis development for athletes who are committed to learning to play well and achieving their personal goals in tennis; including collegiate tennis and perhaps beyond. Led by Nesar Nayak, Grand Slam's Tennis Director, the program has a rigorous curriculum offering at least seven hours of comprehensive training each week. USTA tournament participation and private instruction are integral to the development of high performance players and is supported with competitive scheduling and tournament play observation. FiRE HP offers each athlete and parents the highest level of personalized support and professional guidance.
